WAR PT.1

An elite mercenary turned entrepreneur leaves a life of war to rid the ghost that haunts his mind and escape his past atrocities. Living in anonymity from his enemies, Victor Dacian is the man around town enjoying his new life as a successful owner/operator of several top restaurants and nightclubs in metro Atlanta... until his past catches up with him.

With no plans to return to his violent ways, Victor keeps his ghostly torment and the elite killer he once was secretly buried deep within; unknown to anyone except his squad of loyal mercenaries who stay close to his side. They are his family. He takes good care of them and in return they watch over him content in their new lives without bloodshed.

CONT...

VICTOR FOR

A successful entrepreneur with a cool, international sophistication and European elegance, Victor enjoys being the center of attention as the owner/operator of several top Atlanta restaurants and night clubs.

Most around town know him as a gracious host, a giving man, and a wild partier. Only his tight-knit crew truly know behind the charming smile and cool facade hides a very different person; a man with a dangerous and violent past, tormented by a ghost from his previous life that constantly haunts his mind, a past self he's buried deep within himself hoping never to emerge again, a trained-killer known only to a select few as

Born into a life of war, Vulcan was an elite-mercenary without a conscious. By reputation alone, he was sought after by governments worldwide for his ability to command flawlessly executed Special Ops missions and clandestine operations.

Until... he was forced to carry out orders that were a war crime... he disappeared.

Tormented by his own horrific atrocities, he left his violent world behind to start a new life in anonymity bringing him stateside to Atlanta, GA where many would come to know him as

CARLO

FIDIO

A handsome Italian-American wayward young man, Carlo has yet to fully grow up. He is constantly pulling scams, dealing drugs and sleeping with every girl he meets. He valets at Victor's restaurant as an easy way to pick up women.

Victor sees potential in Carlo despite the kid's utter disregard for thinking with his big head. Unlike others outside of Vic's tight circle, Carlo wins Victor over with the sheer honesty and charm he uses to evade trouble always coming out on top.

Victor sees a glimmer of his once innocent self in Carlo and takes him in as a pet project guiding him to a true purpose. As their bond grows, Victor starts to see Carlo as a little brother.

الرجل الذي لا يمكنه

Beautiful and feisty, Naima has led a difficult life. As a young child she witnessed her mother shot to death only to be sold off at a young age to become the second wife of Sheik Nassir Al-jihadi.

Always yearning for freedom, she has failed several times trying to escape Nassir's clutches with each attempt resulting in harsher punishments and physical abuse. Convinced she is doomed to live a miserable and unfulfilled life she slips deeper into depression until an unintended meeting with Carlo gives her a taste of freedom and true love at a deadly cost.

THE VALET

Between bouts of hard partying, Victor is constantly trying to redeem the wrongs of his past by helping others. No matter how hard he tries, his manifested ghost continually haunts him with constant night terrors and daytime sightings of the Woman in a Black Burka.

Desperate for solace, Victor makes the new valet Carlo, a misdirected twenty-something kid who reminds him of a younger self, his next redemption project. But first...

It's party time.

Victor takes everyone to his finest nightclub when the party is interrupted by yet another ghost from his past, Russian mafia Boss Vladimir Sokolov, with a proposition he never reveals. Knowing all too well wherever Vladimir is, Victor's arch nemesis Sheikh Nassir Al-Jihadi is not far behind, so he disregards Vladimir triggering unforeseen circumstances that reverts Victor back to his past self, the elite killer known only as Vulcan.

CONT...

NASSIR

Vulcan's arch nemesis, Sheikh Nassir Al-Jahari is also the root of Victor's nightmares and regrets. Outwardly he presents himself as a businessman interested in deals with foreign entities. Deep inside he is the epitome of true evil, a funder of terrorists and true jihadist who hides behind diplomatic immunity to cover his thirst for blood and desire for power.

CAST

The most unlikely assassin, Adallah Issawi is anything but gentle, soft or tender as her surname might suggest. She is Ibrahim's right hand and personal bodyguard to Nassir who lifted her out of a life of poverty training her to carry out his most secretive missions knowing most would never suspect a woman would or could fulfill his violent chores. Her loyalty to Nassir is unprecedented and nothing is beyond her ability or reason to execute at the command of her master's single word.

أدالله إصافي

ANTAGONISTS

A ruthless killer, Ibrahim Nattalah has been Nassir's Number One since Vulcan first crossed their paths early in his career. Chief of Nassir's security, Ibrahim is a well-trained warrior in the ancient arts of the Hui Muslims. A master of the Shamsir, he is equally as deadly with any firearm and has a temper that is quick to dispatch a life and never ask questions later. He is ultimately faithful to Nassir and will do anything to keep his honor and loyalty in check no matter the cost.

OFFICER CRUZ

Headstrong and career driven, CIA Officer Cruz will do anything to move up the ranks. She is assigned to oversee Nassir's stay in the states as a purely diplomatic visit and if need be, report anything that may jeopardize the mission to her commanding officer. In her overzealous need to obtain a win, she subscombs to the manipulation of Agent Malone testing her allegiance as she willingly sacrifices her decaying moral fiber for personal gain.

CRUZ

CAST

Once a trusted confidant to Vulcan, FBI Agent Malone's spotty past was often cleaned by Vulcan keeping the two connected. Owing Victor many favors, he's sworn to secrecy being one of the few outsiders who knows Victor's true identity stateside. Upon collecting a favor, Vulcan learns Agent Malone's word is no longer worthy and their relationship devolves when Vladimir appears with a proposition initiated by Malone to better his own stature in the Bureau.

FARIMA THE

The love of Vulcan's life, Farima was the beautiful mother of Naima who followed her heart to become a true casualty of war being betrayed by her own kind, marked for death and killed by the hand of her forbidden lover. She is the Black Burka Ghost that haunts Victor and the one true regret from his past life.

IN THE BLACK BURKA

HANNAH

Young but not innocent, Hannah lives in the quiet college town where Carlo and Naima hide out. To pass time, Naima watches her in the park until they meet and discuss their lives. Unknowingly, Hannah wittily shows Naima a taste of freedom she has longed for making her decision to run off with Carlo final.

HASSANA

Naima's birth name, Hassana witnesses her mother's death and loses the only semblance of a father when Vulcan turns his back on her to be left in the clutches of Nassir. Her pain and anguish as a child blossoms into the rebellious nature of her grown self, ultimately leading to her demise.

SYNOPSIS

Vulcan unleashes a series of unintended consequences leading him and everyone he cares for down a dark path as past truths unravel starting with the discovery that Victor's ghost, the love of Vulcan's life killed by his own hand under military order, was orchestrated by Nassir.

The situation further erupts when Vulcan is reunited with Naima, the woman who once was the daughter of his dead lover he abandoned all those years ago motherless and forced into marriage with Nassir as a child.

Naima and Carlo fall for each other, putting everyone in danger as more skeletons from Vulcan's closet emerge in the form of backstabbing FBI agents, double operative CIA officers, the Russian Mob and Nassir's henchmen.

Vulcan, in too deep, has no choice but to enact his squad and call in reinforcements from trusted war buddies to avenge his ghost and save the two young lovers. The more Vulcan tries to make things right, the more it all goes wrong. Vulcan's wake of carnage ultimately spirals him back to the doomed life Victor tried to leave forever tormented by all he lost.

THIS TIME... WITH NO ESCAPE.
